

EVC Times: March 2024

YOUR SOURCE FOR THE LATEST AVIAN AND EXOTIC NEWS AND DEVELOPMENTS IN OUR PRACTICE AND COMMUNITY.

PRIMARY + SPECIALTY + EMERGENCY/URGENT CARE

Every year, “Easter Bunnies” are treated as disposable pets. A rabbit can be a wonderful companion and live for over a decade. This is not a commitment to be taken lightly.

Do your part to help protect and defend house rabbits by exploring alternative ways to appreciate the fun, joy, and symbolism of the rabbit. Our latest blog has some great ideas for your springtime celebrations. Read more at the link:

Beginning March 20, 2024, all clients are required to prepay a booking fee equivalent to the cost of their pet’s examination at the time of booking. Appointments cannot be reserved without prepayment. This booking fee will be applied to the cost of the visit. In cases of appointments missed without 24 hours notice, a $90 no-call/no-show fee will be deducted from the prepaid booking fee. The remainder, if applicable, will be credited toward the rescheduled appointment or refunded upon request. This policy is intended to allow us to serve our clients in the most efficient manner possible. We thank you for your understanding.

We welcome the arrival of spring, and look forward to enjoying the gorgeous weather before summer’s heat kicks in. To ensure your pet’s safe enjoyment of the season, we offer you these reminders of things to consider before bringing your pet out to enjoy the day with you:
